

think, and whenever you saw men chewing tobacco together, you found the real, public opinion of country."

Next day papers got hold of Wilson's story, slighted rest of his speech and held him as advocate of tobacco chewing.

Tobacco company even went so far as put his picture, together with points from speech, on their advertisements.

Cleveland, O.—Estimated that more than 30,000 visitors are here for national convention of Eagles.

Pittsburg, Pa.—20 Socialists, including 9 women, arrested for exercising right of free speech, kept other prisoners awake all night by cell oratory. Discharged in morning.

Cleveland, O.—Mayor Baker led grand march at opening of Cleveland's municipal dance hall, where tickets cost 3 cents.

Erie, Pa.—Commodore Perry's flagship Niagara, of battle of Lake Erie, which has been on bottom of Erie harbor for century, will be raised and rebuilt.

Cleveland, O.—Cuyahoga county farm has new kind of animal. Calf of Jersey cow resembles cow in only forequarters, has hind legs like deer.

Kiel, Germany.—5 Englishmen, just landed from Copenhagen, arrested, accused of furnishing German military information to England and France.

Constantinople.—Chamber of deputies passed vote of lack of confidence in cabinet and adjourned without date. Feared forcible dissolution by Sultan's troops.

Milwaukee. — Theodore Puls, juvenile probation officer, said that drink was worse than mother-in-laws in causing home trouble. All men are frolicsome at about 40, he said.

Waukegan, Ill.—Wilbur Glenn Voliva modestly declared that he and Roosevelt were only really great men produced in 20th century.

Omaha, Neb.—Judge Leslie advises girls to wear old-fashioned hoopskirts and bustles to avoid being flirted with.

Boston, Mass.—Frances Lyon, Fellowship farm, Westwood, constructed by her lonesome, bungalow costing about $1,000.

New York.—City now has first woman night watchman. Mrs. A. Wolfe has charge of large building that is being remodeled.

Constantinople.—War between Turkey and Montenegro probable. Montenegrans swarming across frontier into Albania.

St. Louis, Mo.—Only local issues are involved in state-wide primaries to be held in Missouri next Tuesday.

Att'y Gen. Elliott W. Major and W. S. Cowherd are leading Democratic candidate for governor.

John C. McKinley picked to win Republican nomination.

Bull Moose will put ticket in field by petition at convention Sept. 3.

Washington.—Senate decided that Archbald impeachment trial will come up Dec. 3.

Washington.—Truman H. Newberry, former sec'y of navy,